La Molina organizes the most massive snow baptism event on its 75th anniversary

- The appointment, which will take place on January 21, is designed for all those who start in the world of skiing
- The ski resort will offer combined packages that will include ski classes, material rental, pass beginners, and Welcome Pack by Decathlon

La Molina will organize a massive activity on Sunday, January 21st: the snow baptism by Decathlon, an event that will also be accessible for people with reduced mobility.

The event will take place with the celebration of the World Snow Day as a backdrop. It is a journey promoted by the International Ski Federation (FIS) that was born with the aim of promoting the world of snow for children. As every year, La Molina joins this innovative initiative, welcoming proposals designed for the family audience.

Combined packages to bring snow to everyone

For that day, La Molina will offer combined packages that include ski lessons for beginners, material rental, ski passes for beginners and Welcome Pack by Decathlon.

There will be two-hour ski packages available for ski beginners: 10 groups for 10 beginners each in two different time slots: from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm, on the one hand, and from 12:00 pm to 2:00 pm, on the other. Participants must go to the offices one hour in advance to collect the pass as well as the voucher that they must hand to the corresponding monitor, in the carp of La Molina, located in the square of Cap de Comella.
